

*'Food of Love' Music Recital
All Saints Church, North Moreton, Oxon
Saturday 13th February 2010*

Essential funds are needed urgently to repair and improve parts of All Saints Church, North Moreton.

To raise an ambitious target of £6,000 (to contribute to the £150,000 needed in total), international opera singer Nicki Kennedy, together with acclaimed tenor John Bowley, has kindly agreed to give a rare candle-lit recital in All Saints Church on Saturday 13th February 2010.

Coinciding with Valentine's weekend, and themed accordingly, this highly entertaining event will feature a variety of songs and duets throughout the ages about the trials and tribulations of love by Handel, Schubert, Granados, Quilter, Bernstein and Cole Porter. The largely classical programme will be complemented by some more modern favourites from popular shows.

Tickets will cost £20 per head and will include wine and canapés. The performance will start at 7.00 pm.

We are expecting this to be a sell-out performance, and as tickets are limited, early booking is highly recommended!

I wish to apply for tickets for the music recital on Saturday 13 February 2010. I enclose a cheque for £..... (£20 per head), made payable to PCC of North Moreton.
